is through this declaration required to ensure postal secrecy compliance in accordance with the PostG and to comply with data protection law requirements under the GDPR.

I am aware that I am required to maintain postal secrecy when providing postal services and that I am subject to the data protection regulations of the GDPR, the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) and the PostG.

Postal secrecy also applies within the company.

I have been issued the "Postal secrecy and data protection" information sheet. The essential content of the provisions of the GDPR, the BDSG and the PostG have also been explained to me and I have been provided a summary of the key rules.

I have been advised that it is prohibited to process, disclose, make accessible or use personal data without authorisation for any purpose other than the one pertaining to the lawful completion of the specific task in question.

These requirements are still binding after conclusion of my employment.

I have been informed that violations of postal secrecy pursuant to section 206 of the Criminal Code (StGB) or committing an offence pursuant to section 42 BDSG may be punishable by imprisonment or a fine and that violations of data protection provisions may lead to supervisory measures and sanctions by the Federal Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information pursuant to Article 58(2) GDPR. This declaration does not affect my confidentiality obligation resulting from my employment or service contract or any separate agreements.

My signature confirms receipt and acknowledgement of this declaration of commitment and of the "Postal secrecy and data protection" information sheet.

I will observe the above obligations.
